Words and Expression to have meaning in Act

A word or expression that is not defined in these model rules, but is defined in the Associations Incorporation Act 1981 has, if the context permits, the meaning given by the Act.

Name

The name of the incorporated Association is Queensland Foster and Kinship Care Inc. ("The Association")

OBJECTIVES

QUEENSLAND FOSTER AND KINSHIP CARE's fundamental purpose is motivated by the desire to protect and care for children and young people who have already experienced harm or have been at risk of experiencing significant harm. Our organisational vision being 'Leave no child in foster care behind'.

As a child protection peak body we promote the prevention of behaviour that is harmful or abusive to children or young people when in the care of foster and kinship carers. We recognise that children and young people not living with birth parents are one of the most vulnerable groups in the community

These objectives are achieved by:

Equipping, empowering and supporting foster and kinship carers responsible for children and young people's safety and wellbeing with the knowledge, skills and support to reduce the risk of harmful behaviours by assisting them with:

- training, information, advice and guidance to Foster and Kinship Carers to assist children and young people in their care;
- assistance to Foster and Kinship Carers to deal with the Department of Child Safety, Queensland Civil and Administrative Tribunal, and other Government & non-government services in relation to administrative and legal processes associated with the children & young people in their care;
- counselling, support and advocacy to Foster and Kinship Carers to assist them in undertaking their role in a supportive, safe environment ensuring the children or young people in their care are cared for in a risk free, secure environment whilst affectively role modelling to build positive adult relationships;
- understanding, identifying and recognising risks to the children & young people in their care and responding appropriately to inappropriate or harmful behaviour;
- providing trained and experienced volunteers and staff that work collaboratively to achieve quality foster and kinship care for children & young people.
- safeguarding and promoting the rights of foster and kinship carers and the children or young people in their care.
- assisting and encouraging non-government child protection service providers and practitioners, government departments and agencies to develop and maintain high standards of services directed to ensuring the safety and well-being of children, young people in care and the support of their foster and kinship care families.
- facilitating and undertaking research, development and training in policy and practice relating to the safety and well-being of children and young people in care and the support of their foster and kinship care families.
- developing and maintaining collaborative relationships and partnership with all the stakeholders associated with the safety and well-being of children and young people in care and the support of their foster and kinship care families.
